Conference Sponsor

The Latino Institute, Inc. is a national private, non-profit, charitable organization. The mission of the institute is to serve as a bridge between the Latino communities, and the educational, governmental, social and economic institutions of society by providing accurate, factual and timely information on the barriers and challenges affecting the education, growth, development and well-being of those communities and by developing, recommending, and advocating solutions and action which may serve as a catalyst for change.
